SIERRA MADRE, CALIFORNIA — THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1955

This World

VIRGINIA JENKINSON

Sierra Madre becomes Sierra Mira for a couple of days while Allied Artists are shooting some scenes for their super horror film, "The Body Snatchers." Walter Wanger who is producing the picture told us that it's a picture you won't forget for a good many reasons. He thinks Dana Wynter who stars in it is something between Andrew Hepburn and Elizabeth Taylor. She's English, he says, and has done TV and stage work in New York. Trotting about Sierra Madre streets, she looks just like a lot of good looking girls living in this vicinity. We'll be anxious to see what makeup and camera angles will do.

On April 2, the public will have an opportunity to see the beauty of Jacques Hahn's gardens, an event sponsored by the Garden Club. Mrs. Alan Hicks says the 50c you pay to go through the grounds will not only give you the thrill of a lifetime, but will help toward building an adequate shelter in the Square. Tickets will go on sale soon.

Funeral Services for Frederick Petterson

Private funeral services will be conducted this morning at 11 o'clock in Ripple Mortuary Chapel for I. Frederick Petterson, formerly of 534 W. Montecito Ave., who died Tuesday. A native of Chicago, Ill., Mr. Petterson had been a resident here for 20 years. He is survived by his widow, Mariella V. Petterson, of Sierra Madre; two sons, Kelsey Stephen Petterson of Downey and Harold Petterson at an eastern residence; two daughters, Mrs. Mary E. Honojos of Monrovia and Mrs. Sylvia B. McRoberts of Sierra Madre; a brother, H. A. Petterson in Compton; and five grandchildren.

Interment will be in Rose Hills Cemetery, Whittier.

Wistaria Princesses to Vie for Title of Queen

Five girls this week were named 1955 Wistaria Princesses to serve during the annual Wistaria Festival. They are Elaine Parks, 16, 449 West Orange Grove Ave.; Naomi Vejar, 17, 476 Sturtevant Drive; Georgia Peterson, 18, 145 San Gabriel Court; Kirby Barron, 16, 335 Sierra Madre Villa, and Jeannine Bernard, 19, 129 South Lotus Ave., Pasadena.

Next week a Wistaria Queen will be chosen from the five Princesses to reign over the 1955 Wistaria Fete.

Judges who selected them last Sunday at the Wistaria Vine grounds, which is now open to the public, are all Sierra Madre people representing civic groups here. They include:

The five Princesses chosen were from a group of 20 who competed in the preliminary contest.

The others were Shirley Cook, 16, 129 West Grandview Ave.; Ruthie LeMarr, 16, 339 Sierra Madre Villa; Carolyn Culp, 16, 3825 Fairmeade Ave., Pasadena; Carol Nagle, 16, of 101 South Lima St.; Gretchen Myers, 16, 201 West Grandview Ave.; Sanya Deimel, 17, of 430 North Mountain Trail; Sally Myers, 16, 201 West Grandview; Pat Dimit, 17, 225 South Mountain Trail; Norma Hoeneman, 17, 315 Adams St.

Jean Murphy, 17, 3821 Hampton Rd., Pasadena; Jewell Boyd, 20, 20000 East Washington St., Pasadena; Sally Lauder, 16, 500 North Sunnyside Ave.; Sarah Carver, 16, 257 East Montecito Ave.; Diane Fritz, 17, 476 Sturtevant Drive, and Gisele Bernard, 16, of 129 South Lotus Ave., East Pasadena.

The Wistaria Festival, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will continue through most of April while the famous Wistaria Vine is in blossom.

Adult Square Dance Classes Starting

The square dancing lessons for children between the ages of 6 and 12 have proved to be so successful that the Chamber of Commerce has given its OK on an adult class to start this Friday night.

The lessons will start at 8 o'clock, immediately after the youngsters finish their instruction. Last Friday night more than 125 boys and girls were present for the class which is being taught by Isabell Connaughton.

The new location for the dancing is in the rear parking lot of Roberts Market on Sierra Madre Blvd. In case of inclement weather the group will probably be taken to the Masonic Hall as was done on a recent wet Friday evening.

So there you are... adults. If you want to learn the art of swinging your partner, now is the time! It's not necessary to enroll, just come downtown and join the crowd on Sierra Madre Blvd.

Union Good Friday Services Slated

The Sierra Madre Ministerial Association announced this week that Union Good Friday Services will again be conducted this year under its sponsorship. Bethany Church will be host to the service this year.

The services will extend from 12 noon until 1:45, Friday, April 8. Participating will be Dr. Robert Schaper of Bethany Church; Rev. Donald Ostrander of Trinity Presbyterian Church; Rev. Raynor Smith of the Church of Our Redeemer (Methodist); Rev. Orian Burlison, pastor of the Nazarene Church, and Rev. George Lindsay of the Congregation Church.

The services will be conducted in fifteen-minute intervals, each period being set aside for meditation upon one of the seven last words of Christ. Special music will be provided for each period.

Burglars Visit Roess Store Early Sunday

The burglary at Roess Market, 331 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., early Sunday morning might have been worse if it hadn't been for Bob Osti who, opening his nursery across the street at 6:10 a.m., interrupted the three thieves as one of them was dragging a box of beer and groceries from the front of the store.

As the men drove down South Lima, Osti followed in his car to see if he might learn the full set of numbers on the getaway car which bore a Washington license plate. Discovering they were being followed, the thieves broke through two red lights on Foot-hill Blvd. and escaped.

After Osti notified the police, a checkup disclosed that the lock on the front door at Roess Market had been broken. David Roess, owner, has placed no estimate on the loss, but it is believed that more beer than food was taken, along with cigarettes and shaving lotion.

Roess says, however, there now is a stronger lock on the door.

C of C Wistaria Treasure Hunt Plans Ready

Shoppers in the Sierra Madre area are invited to browse through local stores during the townwide Wistaria Treasure Hunt Thursday, Friday and Saturday—March 31 through April 2—to seek not only special sale merchandise but also certain items that will go for free if their tags match any of the numbers mailed to more than 6,000 families by the Chamber of Commerce.

The bargain products will bear Wistaria colored tags, in honor of the 41st annual Wistaria Vine Festival that is held here each spring with the blooming of the world-famous giant vine at 201 W. Carter Ave. Whenever the shopper finds a colored tag with the same number as the one mailed to him he is asked to call a sales clerk who will make him a gift of the item with the compliments of Sierra Madre merchants.

In the Treasure Hunt, for adults only, all shoppers are invited to enjoy the fun without obligation to buy. Before the three-day event is over several hundred pieces of merchandise will have been given away to the lucky "hunters." Business houses cooperating will display Wistaria Treasure Hunt emblems on their windows.

The Wistaria Vine Festival, which has drawn visitors from throughout the United States in years past, is expected to last through April.

Backyard Incinerators May Be Abolished Soon

Council Problems Include Smog, Streets, Trees and TV

The role the backyard incinerator plays in the smog situation was a major item of discussion at Tuesday night's City Council meeting. Harold Roberts, vice mayor, who presided in the absence of Mayor Charles James, told members of the Council that "although the certainties are obscure as to just how much household trash burning contributes to smog, the pressure for their elimination is increasing and it appears that they are doomed to go."

MOVIEMAKERS COME TO SIERRA MADRE

Perhaps this week's edition of the Sierra Madre NEWS should be called the Santa Mira News. Mysteriously, the Sierra Madre Hardware sign today reads "Santa Mira Hardware Co.," and across the street the old Skeels store, now vacant, says "Santa Mira Drugs." But the change is only temporary.

Allied Artists moved into Sierra Madre Wednesday and Thursday to shoot some action shots of "The Body Snatchers," which is being produced by Walter Wanger, featuring Kevin McCarthy and Dana Wynter.

It's a real horror film based on a Collier's magazine serial concerning an invisible invasion. Don Siegel, who did a terrific job of directing Wanger's "Riot in Cellblock No. 13," is here in the same capacity.

A crew of approximately 100 persons is here with the production unit.

Mr. Roberts pointed out that there is no legislation yet to outlaw the incinerator, but there probably will be soon. The Council has already received a copy of a letter from Los Angeles County authorities declaring their intention to abolish single chamber incinerators in unincorporated areas by July 1. No action, however, has been taken affecting incorporated cities.

If, in the future, Sierra Madre finds it necessary to discontinue trash burning, it is estimated a 25 per cent increase in pick-up service will cover the cost of paper and inflammable rubbish disposal, Mr. Roberts reported.

Cypress Court Paving
It appears that Cypress Court may get its much needed paving although no definite action was taken at Tuesday's meeting. At a recent meeting of the Council, residents showed willingness to pave and improve the street at their own expense, providing the City would maintain it after the paving was completed. Because the street

20 Artists in Little Gallery Spring Exhibit

The annual spring exhibition of paintings by Sierra Madre artists will be hung in the City Hall Gallery this week.

The Little Gallery is open every day and evening and the great variety of work presented by local painters is well worth more than a casual inspection. Twenty artists are represented with thirty pictures in the current show which will be visited by many out-of-town people during the Wistaria Fete.

IN THE EXHIBIT

"South American Hybrid" and "Wooden Flowers" are meticulously drawn in pencil by Renee Tallantyre. "Country House in Panama" and "Winter in New York" show very interesting handling of pastel in quite different scenes by Blanche Lupfer.

"Fishing Boats" by Bernard Wynne is a tempera painting with substantial composition and realistic color. With bright morning sunlight "Brookside Park" is painted in oils by Lucy Marquadt.

"Birds of Paradise" and "Fruits and Vegetables" by Lydia Marique show well studied forms and clean colors. "The Last Leaf" is a remembrance of winter and "My Favorite Succulent" is forever spring, both done in lovely watercolors by Catherine Tuttle.

"Panama Interior" by Cornelia Reimer is a landscape painting with well balanced color and composition. "Still Life" by Elinor Baumeister is a vigorous arrangement in palette knife painting, and "Japanese Figure" is a stylized watercolor by the same artist. "Hillside Road" leads you straight into spring. This large painting of hills and sycamores shows Alfred James Dewey at his best with transparent oil. In "Filing a Saw" the same artist finds delight in homely subjects and low key.

"Navajo Girl" is an oil portrait by Alfred James Dewey.

Auld Lang Syne

Friday afternoon as the Bank of Sierra Madre was closing for the last time at the address which it has used for 47 years, a group of Sierra Madreans gathered for the purpose of singing "Auld Lang Syne" to President R. C. Lewis. Above you see Mr. Lewis handing the key to Thomas A. Schwartz, who with his partners will soon start work on remodeling the old bank for a super deluxe hardware store. The work of moving into the new bank at 100 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. was completed over the weekend by bank officials, employees, Brink's and Pinkerton Detective Service. Pictured above: Newell Barrett, Jesse Thompson, Tom Schwartz, R. C. Lewis, Mrs. Tom Lorch, Mrs. Alfred Dewey, Miss Vira Schroeder and Alfred Dewey.

Burglar alarms rang within the Bank of Sierra Madre last Friday evening when vault doors were removed by a crew of unmasked men who took off with the biggest bank haul ever recorded in the history of this community.

The job foremen, carpenters, the job foremen, 1907. First known as the First Outside, trucks stood by to carry away bank receipts, safe deposit boxes, and other securities. But passers-by, pausing for a moment to wonder if they were witnessing a bank robbery, soon discovered that everything was under control.

Police and armed guards were much in evidence. So were the carpenters, the job foremen, and helpers. The Bank of Sierra Madre, with resources of six million, one hundred and eighty thousand, five hundred and fifty-nine dollars and sixty-nine cents, was merely going through a well planned process of moving from its old address, 2-23 Kersting Court, to the new one at 100 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Sacks of silver and bundles of currency had to be moved, that was certain, but so did cancelled checks, statements, heavy furniture, and lightweight paper clips. Just how the entire operation was accomplished was nobody's one hundred per cent business. Each man had his job to do and he didn't ask questions.

Besides, it was more or less general knowledge that the cashable stuff—the folding green—was so far removed from the scene that its whereabouts might as well have been addressed to the moon. Actually, every dollar and cent had been checked in the afternoon and taken by armored car to the vaults in another city.

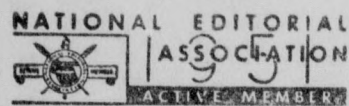

The money was safely returned, however, in time for the bank to do business as usual at 10 a.m. Monday at the new

BUSES IN ACCIDENTS

There were 49 traffic accidents involving school buses in California during December, 1954, according to the National Automobile Club. Four children were injured in these accidents.

THE PATCH BAG

A most practical patch bag can be made from a yard or two of mosquito netting. This enables one to see the contents from the outside, and there is no necessity for emptying the entire contents to find the exact piece of goods wanted.

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

Editors' Note: The opinions expressed in Mr. Shippey's column are not necessarily those of the editors and publishers of the NEWS. If you disagree with Mr. Shippey, who asks, "What Do You Think?", please address your letters to this paper or to Mr. Shippey. It is the intention of THE NEWS to stimulate provocative thought and what YOU think is an important part of our program in presenting both sides to public questions of the day. Naturally, we cannot use letters which are abusive or unsigned. We not only invite, but encourage you to use our "Letters to the Editor" column.

Well, this column certainly stirs up arguments—which is just what it is designed to do. Last week Dr. Jacobs took issue with what I wrote the week before, and did such a good job of it I must concede he may be right. I merely wish to be convinced.

I will be glad to see the new street put through if it can be done without injury to persons it will not materially benefit but will materially tax. Dr. Jacobs thinks the new street will materially raise the value of all the property fronting on it. I agree that it will increase the value for taxable purposes but feel it certainly will not increase its value for living purposes, and fear it will be a long time before it increases it for business or income property purposes. Anyone wishing to establish a business wishes it to be on the main drag, not on a back street.

I do not think the proposed street will touch the small property I own down there, and was not raising the question on my own account. I cited the case of Mrs. Leno, whose property, I believe, will lie along it. She cannot afford to build income property on the new street and does not know of anyone who is waiting, checkbook in hand, to buy her property at an increased valuation. In the course of years such a customer may come along, but before that time she may have to sell for what she can get.

If such fears are groundless, it might pay someone who knows the answers—if anyone does—to call on Mrs. Leno and inform them just what the street will cost their property and how it may be paid. I still think those most benefited, and immediately benefited, should bear a greater proportionate share of the cost.

Incidentally, at Red Cross headquarters there is a small apartment for a caretaker. A good, sober man who is willing to work about an hour a day in lieu of rent may occupy that neat, convenient apartment, free. But it has been advertised with no takers. That doesn't prove that there would be immediate demand for multiple dwellings on the new street.

Walter R. Brown, who died last week and was buried in Forest Lawn Monday, had lived in Sierra Madre close to 20 years, yet was such a quiet, homeloving citizen that very few of us knew him. I was one of those few because Walter was a brother-in-law of Homer Croy, the author, who was my roommate in Paris in 1919, so we naturally looked up the Browns as soon as they came here. If there ever was a friendly, kindly, accommodating, utterly unselfish neighbor it was Walter Brown, and that is about as high praise as any man can merit. His hard-working fidelity to his employer, the American Express Co., made him work incredibly long hours in times of stress and war, but Walter remained cheerful no matter how long the hours were. The things he accomplished in and about his home seemed to me almost miraculous for an amateur. Since last November he had suffered terribly, yet visitors who called hoping to cheer him went away cheered and inspired themselves because of his amazing courage and faith and fortitude. It was a privilege to have known him.

OPEN FORUM

Editor Sierra Madre News

In your March 10 issue, the outside consultant on zoning urges us to be "concerned not only with what Sierra Madre is today, but also with what it will be tomorrow." We agree. That is precisely why so many of us homeowners feel that many of the recommendations for rezoning which this outside consultant has made are the wrong ones for Sierra Madre's "tomorrow."

As an example, what will Sierra Madre Blvd. look like "tomorrow" if his recommendation is adopted to open up an entirely new commercial spot at the southwest corner of Michillinda and the Boulevard? Here, in a section of fine homes contributing their share to the town's attractiveness, in a location blocks away from the rest of the town's commercial area, he proposes to rezone one piece of property from R1 to Commercial. Does this type of "spot" zoning and the decentralization of the town's commercial area mean that "tomorrow" Sierra Madre Blvd. is to take on the appearance of another Garvey Ave.?

What will our town look like "tomorrow" after the priceless trees are ripped out to make way for apartment houses and courts on all of the land he proposes to rezone from R1 to R3? Ours is a "home" town. Would it not be better planning for "tomorrow" to preserve its character by encouraging more single-family homes on these vacant lots, by encouraging present homeowners to maintain the attractiveness of their places, instead of threatening them with gas stations next door?

The consultant speaks of "these days of rapid change in the habits and desires on the part of everyone" and of "obvious changing trends." How many, many Sierra Madreans commute long distances in order to escape the changing habits and trends that have blighted other communities? Not everyone's desires are rapidly changing, certainly not their desire for a quiet, attractive and uncrowded community in which to live.

Some of the country's finer home communities have had to spend large sums to rehabilitate the appearances of their principal entrances. They have learned the hard way that the impression which the community gives at its boundaries is of great importance to the entire town in setting the tone of the community.

Sierra Madre has been blessed with a beautiful western "front door," the preservation of which is of concern to all home owners. Why should it be defiled with a gas station, stores or what have you, by the spotty rezoning of one corner from R1 to Commercial?

With genuine concern for what Sierra Madre will be "tomorrow," let us resist these unwise and undesirable changes in the face and character of our "home" town proposed by an outside consultant.

Profiles of Local Artists

Alfred J. Dewey

By Sewall Clark

This week the Sierra Madre NEWS presents the first in a series of articles, to appear from time to time, devoted to the human interest and local color found in the lives of Sierra Madre artists whose works are now on permanent exhibit in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension. Because Sierra Madre, among other things, long has been known as an artists' haven these articles will be concerned with the individual artist's way of life, with personality, more than prestige. Order of appearance will have nothing to do with the artist's rating either as professional or amateur.

Many oldtimers, watching their old haunts invaded by new subdivisions, may say that the village days of Sierra Madre are gone forever, but there still remain a few places and a few people who retain the personality of that era, not long ended, when visitors here were inclined to describe Sierra Madre to the folks back home as "that beautiful artists' colony."

The studio at 28 Windsor Lane, up-and-across the street from the police station at City Hall, is such a place—and such a man is the quiet, white-haired man who, almost any day, can be found inside the studio surrounded by his paintings on the wall as he sits beneath the skylight that has looked down upon many student classes, many successful works, and many happy evenings crowded with visiting town-folk.

His name is Alfred James Dewey, an artist whose work has been reproduced throughout the country—sometimes controversially—and if anyone were to be called the Dean of Sierra Madre Artists he is the one. Dewey not only looks the way most people want an artist to look, he also lives that way. Never in his life has he considered making a dollar through any medium other than his painting or his teaching.

Although his seascapes and other oils have been bought by collectors, his landscapes—so well displayed at the Bank of Sierra Madre and other addresses—are the paintings for which he is most famous. While no one doubts the theme stressed by a well-known song, to the effect that only God can make a tree, Dewey's paintings of eucalyptus in local settings have been so beautiful as to give Mother Nature a hard run for her first place position.

A native of Tioga, Pa., Dewey won a life scholarship at the School of Industrial Arts in Philadelphia where he later taught for six years, and by the time he and his wife, Sally, found Sierra Madre during a quest for better climate in 1927 he had become a well-known magazine illustrator for Harper's, Century, the original Life, and many others.

After a residence of 11 years here, Dewey became the central figure around which the Sierra Madre Arts Guild was organized May 2, 1938. Many of the 37 members who signed the Guild's constitution are now some of Sierra Madre's most prominent names in business as well as art and professional life.

Those were the days of the Old Adobe Studio on Montecito, when the Guild, quickly growing to a membership of 200, became a hub for social activities patronized not only by the artist and the art lover but by the baker, the butcher—and just about everybody.

Ah, for the good old days! But perhaps they aren't gone forever. Now that the work of Sierra Madre artists is on permanent display every afternoon in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, at Laurel and Baldwin, the color and culture of Sierra Madre's heritage may not only be revived but expanded, along with its subdivisions.

Whatever the case, in that art exhibit can be found the distinguished portrait entitled "Dean Dewey"—the late Rev. Arnold G. H. Bode of the Episcopal Church—painted in 1937 by Alfred James Dewey, who for many reasons of art and Sierra Madre history, could well be called "Dean Dewey."

Income Tax Exemptions for Veterans Explained by Bureau

Veterans figuring their Federal income taxes need not count as income any payments they have received for Veterans Administration benefits, since these payments are tax-free, the VA and the Bureau of Internal Revenue said today.

Dividends which veterans receive on their GI insurance policies also are exempt from taxation and need not be reported as income.

Among the tax-free VA payments are the following: Education and training allowances for post-Korea veterans enrolled in schools and training establishments under the Korean GI Bill.

Subsistence payments made to disabled World War II and Korea veterans training under Public Law 16, the Vocational Rehabilitation Act.

Subsistence allowances paid to World War II veterans training under the original World War II GI Bill.

Disability compensation and pensions received by veterans because of service-connected and non-service-connected disabilities.

Grants to seriously disabled veterans for homes designed for "wheelchair living."

Grants for motor vehicles to veterans who lost their sight or lost the use of their limbs.

World War I emergency officers' retirement pay.

Death benefits to families of deceased veterans also are exempt from taxation. These include compensation, pension and all GI insurance payments.

Power Squadron Receives New Commander, Group Charter

Peter V. Rogers, 275 Manzanita Ave., was inducted as commander of the Pasadena Power Squadron last Friday evening at a meeting of the squadron members at Eaton's Restaurant in East Pasadena.

He was installed in this commander's position by Chief Commander Champ who flew from Findley, Ohio, for the ceremonies which also included the presentation of the squadron's charter to the newly organized group of 85 members. The squadron is an organization of boating enthusiasts who sponsor free courses dealing with seamanship, navigation, sailing and piloting.

Sierra Madre was well represented by both charter members and members of the executive staff. Robert Nash, 22 S. Baldwin Ave., will edit a publication for the organization each month; Fred Edmunds, 1095 Daverick Drive in Hastings Ranch, has been named program chairman; Arthur Ritterath of Sierra Engineering at 123 E. Montecito Ave., will be the awards chairman; Dr. Milton Valois, 51 E. Bonita Ave., is the public relations officer, and Dr. Jack Paschall, 59 N. Sunnyside, will lead the group's educational work.

Door prizes at the Friday meeting were donated by several marine businesses and Arnold's Hardware represented Sierra Madre by contributing one of the awards. Also featured in the program was a film presentation of the Florida Keys.

Because outboard cruising appears to be the subject of greatest interest in boating circles, Commander Rogers announced that boats smaller than 24 feet participating in any of the 10 planned cruises to Santa Catalina, Santa Cruz and Santa Barbara Islands will be assigned and escorted by the larger boats in the Power Squadron fleet.

Lady Lion Members Have Recent Meeting

The Sierra Madre Lady Lions recently met in the home of Mrs. Paul Landwehr, 260 W. Carter.

Following a short business meeting, Mrs. Diana Rosner of Veloz and Yolanda Dancing Studio gave a talk on "Health and Beauty" and also illustrated some dance steps.

Among those in attendance were Mrs. Robert Buttane, Mrs. Frank Barbara, Mrs. Joe Delgatto, Mrs. Doug Dickson, Mrs. Vern Eppard, Mrs. John French, Mrs. Harold Hamm, Mrs. George Harinaford, Mrs. Percy C. Kortkamp, Mrs. Carl Lotze, Mrs. Larry McGinnis and Mrs. Ralph Martin.

Also, Mrs. Edwin Meyer, Mrs. Harold Pangborn, Mrs. Sam Simpson, Mrs. "Pappy" Welch, Mrs. Lloyd Welch, Mrs. Daniel Wilson, Mrs. William Waite, Mrs. Jack Yeckley and Mrs. Gene Gilmore.

Hope is a common good—it lingers when everything else is gone.

Large PTA Group Hear Panel Discussion at March 17 Meet

A lively and interested group of parents gathered at the Sierra Madre School on Thursday evening, March 17, to hear a panel discuss "The Transition from Sixth to Seventh Grade."

The panel was composed of Mr. Melburn Stine, sixth grade parent; Mr. Phillip Mitchell, sixth grade teacher; Mrs. Stanley Coutant, seventh grade parent, and Mrs. Anita Schwartz, guidance counselor for seventh grade students at Marshall Junior High. Mrs. Edith Dane was the moderator. Each of those spoke first on his own particular province, and when a round table of discussion of special issues. Questions were submitted by the parents present.

The most fascinating question, however, was handed in by a little girl from the sixth grade. She wanted to know, "Do all the girls who go to Marshall wear lipstick on the first day of school?" The answer was almost as interesting. "No," said Mrs. Schwartz, "Nor the second day nor the day after that. But at the beginning of the second semester every little girl in the seventh grade suddenly appears in lipstick!"

After the discussion the sixth grade teachers and parents served home-made doughnuts and coffee in the cafeteria.

YOUR HEALTH

TOO EARLY OLD!

Roy O. Gilbert, M.D.
Los Angeles County Health Officer

Age doesn't seem to be altogether a matter of years. Some individuals appear old and settled while still on the sunny side of 50; others may seem youthful in their seventies. No doubt the reasons for this are many, and sometimes inexplicable, but scientists who have studied the effects of nutrition on the aging process state that good health, resistance to the degenerative diseases, and a longer life span are all promoted to some degree by eating the right foods in the right amounts.

The nutrition department of the Harvard School of Public Health recently published a report in which it is stated that a well-balanced diet of the essential foods is just as important for the individual over 70 as for the child or younger adult. In the older person, however, certain dietary modifications are in order.

As a person grows older, there are a number of reasons why it is generally considered a good health measure to restrict the number of calories that are eaten. The insidious encroachment of age generally brings about decreased physical activity and a declining basal metabolism while, in the very old, there is also a certain decrease in height and weight. Because of the slower metabolic rate, which simply means that the body's fuel in the form of food takes longer to burn up, some research workers go so far as to recommend that the caloric intake be reduced 5 to 7 per cent for each decade of life beyond 25.

When more food is consumed than the body requires, the extra calories are stored up within the body in the form of fat. Should the habit of overeating persist, the individual becomes overweight and a strain is placed on all the organs of the body. Certainly there is statistical evidence aplenty that this condition affects the length of life unfavorably.

Adults, particularly after the age of 40, should therefore limit the intake of sugars, starches, and fats. Most of the day's calories should be obtained from fresh fruits and vegetables, meat or meat substitutes, seafood, poultry products, dairy foods, cereals, and whole wheat or enriched white bread.

Since the amount eaten must be less, it is all the more important that the foods consumed be rich in the essential food substances, including vitamins and minerals as well as proteins — daily consumption of which is necessary, as excess protein cannot be stored in the body. Otherwise, the advantages of eating less will be offset by nutritional deficiencies that, in themselves, usually result in a train of ills.

Studies have revealed that certain proteins taken at the same meal are of more value nutritionally than when eaten at separate times, since one seems to cause better utilization of the other within the body. Rice and peas are of greater nutritional value when eaten at the same meal for instance, than when each is taken separately at different periods of the day.

But a number of factors influence eating habits, particularly those of the elderly. Food likes and dislikes, reduced income, lack of family, poor housing, an indifference to well-being, ill-fitting dentures, and a lack of sound nutritional knowledge are among the things that affect food intake. Not every one of these barriers to good nutrition can be overcome but, within limitations, improvements can be made.

Exercise, within the individual's capacity, is encouraged since it stimulates circulation, improves digestion, and encourages elimination, and also keeps some extra calories from being stored as fat. And, it is said, bones that are used are the stronger for it.

Whatever the age may be, proper nutrition helps people to help themselves. At any rate it is worth a try for, in the words of Sir Thomas Browne, to "grow too early old before the days of age" is indeed lamentable.

Man has one consolation—he can avoid a lot of fool taxes he has been imposing on himself.

Funeral Services for Walter Raleigh Brown

Funeral services were held Monday for Walter Raleigh Brown, 441 W. Manzanita, in the Church of the Resurrection at Forest Lawn Memorial Park at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Mr. Brown, chief clerk for the American Express in Los Angeles, was born in Rockwood, Ore., 54 years ago and had made his home in Sierra Madre for the past 22 years.

His death, March 18, in a Los Angeles hospital, followed a long illness.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Viola S. Brown; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Anderson of Altadena; a son, Gerald Brown of Sierra Madre; a sister, Mrs. Miriam Adkins, and three brothers, Charles E. Brown, Frank H. Brown and Ross Brown, all of Oregon.

The funeral services were read by Rev. Donald H. Ostrander and interment was at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

DAUGHTER BORN TO LEONARD BARRETT

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Barrett are the parents of a daughter born Tuesday morning, March 22, at the Huntington Memorial Hospital. The little miss tipped the scales at 9 pounds, 1 1/2 ounces and has been named Elisa Mae. The father is associated with his father, R. G. Barrett, in the operation of the Barrett Nursery, 192 N. Mountain Trail.

Open Forum

ESPERANZA AVENUE

Versus Sierra Madre Blvd.

As a rebuttal to an Open Forum letter in the Sierra Madre News of March 17, 1955, I would like to offer these facts.

There is lots of small talk these days about Multiple Dwellings. True, we have been told about Multiple Taxes. I have yet to hear big talk about Multiple People. In bringing Multiple Growth to Sierra Madre we have considered Multiple Police Force, Multiple Fire Department, increased Multiple Fire Insurance, Multiple School Bonds, Multiple School Teachers, Multiple Parking, (has anyone heard that dirty word before? And would anyone like to acquire a public parking lot on their private property?) Multiple Sewer Bonds and Multiple WATER SUPPLY? We have been told that our schools are inadequate, our teachers inadequate, and our water mains bursting at the seams.

Incidentally—let's quote Mrs. Jack Shearer correctly if she is to be quoted at all. Mrs. Jack Shearer stated she wanted a street; she still does, on an EQUITABLE BASIS. Both for the Esperanza side as well as for the Sierra Madre side and I shall fight for same.

If there is to be commercial on the north side of the proposed new street there is to be commercial on the south side, too. On what basis, does anyone think we need a new street if zoned multiple dwelling? If we are zoned R-3 WE ALREADY HAVE A STREET!

Let it also be known that just because certain persons on the north side purchased land blindly, without foresight, without ingress and egress to their business property, is no reason "Squatters Row" should be sacrificed to this cause.

An error in the mention of lots 300 feet in depth that some may traverse daily. Perhaps a closer look should be taken at the rezoning map in the City Hall. If we were left 150 feet for a home I assure you that would be just DUCKY. Factually, however, it leaves us with 110 feet, 35 feet less than these measurements, on adjacent property. Not to mention lightly the proposed alley at our back door. Would anyone in Sierra Madre like an alley at their back door? This letter speaks of acquiring 150 feet for a home which would be their business. That we acquired 260 feet for our home is going to remain our business. To that end SUFFICIENCY is what we make it . . . !

It has been written Mr. Shippey was interested (selfishly?) in his own income property . . . he would deprive others on Esperanza of same. BOSH. Read the Zoning Ordinance. Anyone of us with footage is entitled to build on his . . . so-called empty property . . . if he had the money for same. What this town needs is more, and more, and more Mr. Lee Shippeys!

As this letter explicitly pointed out, "the unbearable cost" of the proposed project by Whinnall and Associates was just that—UNBEARABLE! In answer to the statement that there isn't a home on the Esperanza side that couldn't raise the cost for the improvements, let's—Speak for Yourself, John!

The cost of this project is far greater than the City of Sierra Madre can afford. Yet this tremendous burden is to be placed upon the shoulders of a few. If this letter's allegations are correct—without financial responsibility the whole of Sierra Madre shall reap the fruits of our labor.

Quote—"Property could readily be sold at a value far beyond the present value of the entire property which would leave a home with a lot of 150 feet." After deductions, of costs per proposed street and donations of land thereto? This, I would like to see in my BANK ACCOUNT. Then, too, if this letter's suppositions are correct—we'd be glad to hand out a street on a silver platter by tomorrow night at 5 o'clock.

I disagree with this letter completely that this area of two square miles is needed for more light industry. If light industry does need more land, let them seek same at LANDCASTER.

In closing I wish to add that I am the descendant of one of the oldest families in Sierra Madre, the Hosmer-Copps family. "Squatters Row" on Esperanza has been through too many depressions to let hardship and sorrow stand in their way. IF . . . EQUALITY of Esperanza Avenue Versus Sierra Madre Blvd. is the redeeming factor, then I am for it. What is good for the gander is also good for the goose.

There is one thing of which we can all agree, Mr. Mayor, Mr. City Administrator, Mr. City Council and Mr. Planning Commission. We live in a town of milk and honey, let's keep it that way.

Absit invidia,
MRS. JACK SHEARER,
73 Esperanza Avenue.

Money! Money! Money!

Major league club owners have to shell out nearly $10,000,000 to meet their payrolls this year. This amazing amount of money is a new all-time high.

The New York Giants, this year have a payroll of $550,000, a record amount for the National League. In the American League the Cleveland Indians say they have set a new major league mark of $675,000. The old high was credited to the New York Yankees with $640,000. The Cardinals have a new high mark of a half-million dollars, and so do the White Sox.

Serious Problem

George Weiss, general manager of the Yankees, told a local newspaper that while the rise in payrolls to players, managers and coaches has been a matter of concern for the past ten years, it's really a serious problem now. Some 20 years ago, he said, Yankee payrolls ran to about $250,000. Now they run over the $600,000 mark. Yet, he went on, nobody will take a cut. Even though the Yankees lost the pennant in 1954, the players demanded for 1955 as much or more than they got last year. Only a few reductions were made. "Where," asked Weiss, "do we stop? When someone goes broke? That's a rough way to size up the situation, but it's true."

Branch Rickey, Pirates' general manager, says that paying big bonuses is ruining the game. He doesn't blame the youngsters for getting all they can, and he doesn't blame the veterans for wanting as much as the youngsters get. But, he said, he can't understand how the men who run the game can continue to lavish such huge sums on untied youths. Rickey, taking some of the blame himself, said it's high time for the owners to put their houses in order. "We in baseball," he said, "must come down to earth and help save the game and ourselves."

Schedule Rehearsals For April 8 Cantata

The second rehearsal for the Good Friday cantata, "The Seven Last Words of Christ," will be held tonight at 7:30 in the Congregational Church. Director Matter urges that all those who may not have been able to attend the first rehearsal be present tonight. However, after tonight membership will close due to the short time remaining.

The third rehearsal will be with the chorus and orchestra together at 7:30 next Thursday evening in the Sierra Madre Elementary School auditorium with one more joint rehearsal to be announced for the following week. The performance will be given on Good Friday night at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium, with Eunice and Earle Anderson and Frank Small, vocal soloists; Elizabeth Farrow, accompanist; and Stewart Matter, conducting. There will be an admission charge.

The college of hard knocks has a larger alumni than all the institutions of learning.

ETERI Club Meeting Slated for March 28

Members of ETERI Club will meet Monday, March 28, at Bethany Church for their regular monthly "work night." Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Henry Childers and Mrs. Lester Packard.

The group's current projects are the knitting of wristlets for Korea and the wrapping of bandages for a mission in Africa.

The "Lonely Heart" of the Feb. 14 meeting was revealed to be Mrs. Mary Catherine Brown, at a recent meeting held in the Dick Browning home, 3665 Shadow Grove. Mrs. Roy Griffin was co-hostess. Mrs. Ivan Over received the prize for having been the first member to call Mrs. Brown.

The "Mystery Lady" of the evening was Mrs. Hugh Bell. Mrs. Elbert Stone received recognition in being the "lucky eighth" in shaking hands with Mrs. Bell.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. H. E. Elliott, Mrs. R. M. Savage, Mrs. Kendall Jones of Arcadia and Mrs. H. C. Jensen of Hastings Ranch.

SEWING ROOM HINT

Cut the strips containing buttons and button holes from discarded garments and use them under flys in new garments. This will save much time and labor.

Teachers' Association Has Breakfast Meeting

Pasadena branch, The Music Teachers' Association of California, recently met for a breakfast meeting.

A panel of speakers gave ideas on presentation of piano techniques. The program chairman, Gurtha Olin Rodda, acted as moderator and introduced Ruth Hampton, Lue Alice Keller, Evelyn Hood and Gustav Rihard.

Jennie Cossitt, director of the Piper's Guild of America, demonstrated the "Shepherd's Pipe," a specially constructed bamboo pipe, and told of its therapeutic and educational use.

INK STAINS ON HANDS

A solution of peroxide of hydrogen containing a few drops of ammonia will remove ink stains from the hands.

Garden Club Plans Garden Tour Apr. 2

The Sierra Madre Garden Club will sponsor a tour of the gardens at the C. Jacques Hahn home, 343 N. Grove, Saturday, April 2.

Mr. Hahn ranks among the top landscape architects of the nation and his garden is one of the most beautiful and outstanding in the Southland and reflects his artistic ability.

The garden will be at its prime by April 2 and everyone is invited to take advantage of this opportunity to see so much beauty. Admission will be 50c and the proceeds will be offered toward the building of an approved shelter at Kersting Court.

Often the man who returns home empty handed carries a heavier load than his provident neighbor.

Skutts Write From Isle of Capri -- Next Stop Florence

★ ★ ★ SAY WEATHER VERY "UNUSUAL" IN EUROPE

Isle of Capri
Dear Friends:

Yes, we saw the Socrates ruins where that speech was made, although our guide mixed fact with fancy, so we're not too sure.

If you read of the storm along the Mediterranean, Riviera and Genoa—you know what happened to the Skutts there: we started to freeze! Except for two days in Rome—the weather everywhere has been "unusual."

We asked a Canadian in Cook's Travel office to have a cup of coffee with us, because he seemed lonely, and instead we found ourselves whisked to the ancient Roman Forum (each Caesar had his own forum) by taxi, because he wanted to wander there without a guide and to shoot pictures.

The forum was twenty feet or so below the city streets of today—and only patched columns and broken marble pieces indicate its splendor. We bent over and walked under an ancient brick wall, some fifteen feet thick, to examine its foundations. It had been a part of a four-story palace, but incorporated into modern buildings where they began twenty feet above.

The mosaic floors of other buildings remain, but no marble—that was plundered for later buildings. To this day, the Italians use marble inside homes as we use linoleum or tile.

There was so much of religious and artistic interest to see in Rome that we took all four day tours and one night tour, hoping to thus include the most important sights. Also it was easier. If one knew in advance what he wished to see, it would pay to hire a personal guide and proceed at one's own pace.

Pompeii remains more the scene of a tragedy to us than a great historical site. The citizens were in the midst of rebuilding their city after an earthquake when they were "buried alive." Loaves of bread, petrified, and a bowl of eggs are pathetic. The beauty chest with its silver mirror and manure set ready for use, remain to us. Also the most beautiful villa with its pictured walls, paid for by wealth from the slave market.

We sailed for Capri, this chunk of rock in the Sea of Many Blues, on the sleek liner, Capri. The city is nestled in a saddle reached by funicular or a cliff-hugging road. In a half hour we visited three other cities, clinging to this rock like the ferns and mosses that cover every rock and brick. The view from our restaurant high above the city and sea was completely satisfying.

A letter received in Rome from the Ed Lawrence of Sierra Madre, informs us that they have enjoyed driving a little Austin all over New Zealand, and after three weeks in

Hospital Guild to Sponsor Tea March 27

Rev. Mother Marguerita Maria announced at the March board meeting of the Santa Teresita Hospital Guild the date for the opening of the new Santa Teresita General Hospital in Duarte.

The expansion program has included the erection of new buildings and many changes in the old ones as well as added personnel to staff the new units. It is expected the new General Hospital will accommodate 50 additional patients.

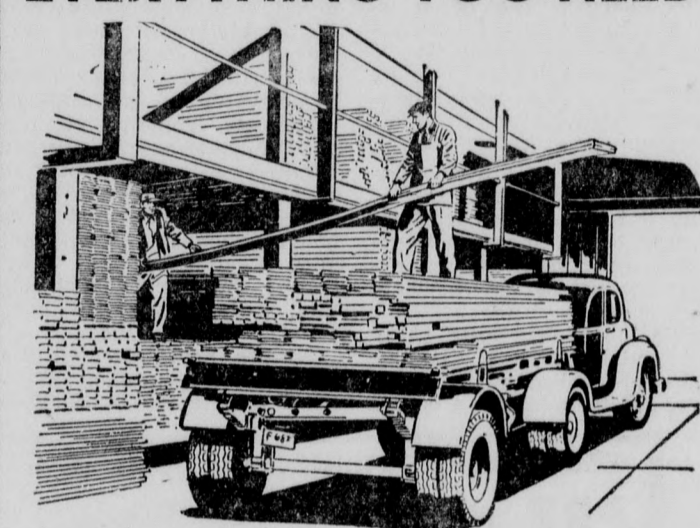

In order to provide their many friends with an opportunity to see the new hospital as it is nearing completion, the Guild board members are sponsoring a tea and open house to be held Sunday, March 27, from 3 to 5 p.m. at 819 S. Buena Vista Rd., Duarte. Mrs. Arthur, Guild president, is general chairman for the event.

LT. COL. NADINE FLEET, Oakland, exec. Volunteers of Amer.—"It is more helpful to have people strengthen their own faith rather than preach

Now you Know!

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems
By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: A young friend of our son doesn't own a car but is engaged to a girl who does have a car. When they go out together he always drives and I've heard him say he'd like to carry Liability insurance of his own. Would this be possible?
ANSWER: Certainly and it is a very wise thing for him to do. The premium for that kind of coverage is very low, too.

'Flights of Fashion' Stated for April 28 By St. Rita's Guild

Plans are well underway for the annual fashion tea, "Flights of Fashion," sponsored by the St. Rita's Guild of St. Rita's Shrine scheduled for Thursday, April 28, at 3 p.m. in the Coral Room at Bullock's Pasadena.

Mrs. Victor Daniels, general chairman of the event, will be assisted by the Guild President, Mrs. Roland Rosauer. The committees will be headed by Mrs. Anthony Merten, patrons; Mrs. Richard Loel, drawings; Mrs. John Nuccio, reservations; Mrs. William Sidenfaden, door prizes; Mrs. Tom Welch, invitation; Mrs. Joel Ruggles, programs; and Mrs. Walter Fleming, publicity.

It has been suggested that anyone interested in attending the affair make their reservation with Mrs. Nuccio at CUster 5-6437 as soon as possible since reservations will be limited this year.

Mike Waite Marks Seventh Birthday

Seven girls and seven boys gathered at the William M. Waite home, 292 W. Carter, St. Patrick's Day to help Mike Waite celebrate his seventh birthday.

Green and white favors were used in the decorations and the young guests spent an enjoyable afternoon of games.

Among those in attendance were Kitty Lou Wittig, Nancy Sheriff, Karen French, Nancy Solary, Terry Crook, Ruth Ann Meyer, Susie Daniels, Ricky Richter, Timmy Walker, Michael Emrick, Dicky Fretz, Chuck Hartman, Kenny Agee and Robert Williamson.

Milton L. Goldberg Attends Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Goldberg, 590 Ramona, and their children, Roberta and Michael, recently returned from Northern California where they attended Pacific Conference Camping Federation meeting in Asilomar.

Mr. Goldberg is vice-president of the American Camping Association and was chairman for one session at the recent gathering of four hundred delegates who represented seven western states.

Before returning to their home, the travelers visited Mrs. Goldberg's cousin and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Alec Skolnick in San Mateo and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jacobs, in Menlo Park.

Neil Thomas Maloney Visits in Sierra Madre

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Maloney, 15 E. Algeria, will entertain their son and new daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Thomas Maloney, of San Luis Obispo.

The young couple were married at a nuptial mass in the old Mission in San Luis Obispo March 19. The bride is the former Shirley June Walter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walter of the northern city.

Mr. Maloney is a graduate of St. Rita's Parochial School, Loyola High School in Los Angeles, and will receive his degree in animal husbandry from the California Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo tomorrow.

The young couple will visit in Sierra Madre while Mr. Maloney is awaiting his draft call next month.

Farewell Party for Douglas G. Krings

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas G. Krings, 116 N. Auburn, were honored last night at a farewell party given in the Paul T. Tate home, 350 N. Lima. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Fretz were co-hosts.

Spring flowers were used in the table decorations. The highlight of the buffet table was a beautifully decorated ice-cream cake.

The guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Krings with a set of china for their new home.

Among those taking part in the evening's festivities were Mr. and Mrs. James Winslow, Mrs. Alyce Herold, Mr. and Mrs. Harry MacDonagh, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mihalovic, Mrs. Ruth Passage, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Mavity, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Stevenson, Mrs. A. B. Ayers and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Winkelpleck.

The Krings have lived in Sierra Madre for the past seven years and will be moving soon, with their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to a new home in the Antelope Valley.

C. F. Adams Attend Nephew's Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Adams, 93 N. Canon, attended the wedding of their nephew, Ruckman Grier Byrne, and Suzanne Ely last Saturday.

The wedding took place in the home of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Leisure, Bradbury Estates, Duarte.

The groom's mother, a sister of Mr. Adams, gave a tea at the Valley Hunt Club prior to the nuptials and Mrs. Adams assisted.

MR. AND MRS. C. GOUAUX RETURN TO LOUISIANA

Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Gouaux of Lafayette, La., are returning to their home after a three-month visit with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Wynne of 86 E. Alegria. The Gouauxs came to be with the Wynnes for the birth of their third child and for the Christmas holidays. The new baby arrived Christmas Eve. The Wynnes have two other children, Leslie and Mary Lorena.

Mrs. D. Wells Feted By Camp Fire Girls At Tea Party

Honoring Mrs. Don Wells, Sierra Madre school nurse, O-Top-A Camp Fire Girls held a tea at the home of Mrs. William E. Harris last Saturday afternoon. As a requirement to pass rank they must give a tea honoring an outstanding woman of the community.

The introduction of guests was made by a skit similar to the TV and Radio program, "This Is Your Life." Among those introduced were Miss Jo De Tuncof of San Marino, a sister of Mrs. Wells; Mrs. Norman Williamson of Monrovia, a girlhood friend; Mrs. J. C. Parch of South Pasadena; Mrs. J. Walters Lewis of Alhambra, and Mrs. Leon Meyer of Laguna Beach, long-time friends of Mrs. Wells; Mrs. George Barnett and Ellen Barnett of Pasadena, daughter and granddaughter; Mrs. B. L. Hinkley of Sierra Madre, a school board member when Mrs. Wells was hired in 1938; Mrs. Zadya Leonard, Miss Helen Jones, and Mrs. Yerdia Adams, retired teachers of Sierra Madre School; Mrs. Beulah Woods, Miss Betty Newton and Mrs. Florence Nielsen who are working at the City School with Mrs. Wells.

Other guests included Mesdames Richard Forster, Barbara Jano, Helmut Vorster, Foster Buckner, F. C. Taubitz and daughter, Diana; Paul Erp, Oscar Ogren, J. B. Gentry and Wm. F. Schmidt.

The girls presented Mrs. Wells with a beautiful white orchid, a copper planter and a giant-sized toothbrush.

The O-Top-A Camp Fire group consists of Marie Sorensen, Diana Steele, Susan Harris, Carol Ogren, Marylou Gentry, Karen Schmidt and Linda Willis with leaders Mrs. William Harris and Mrs. Tom E. Willis.

TO LIVE IN DENVER

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence B. Weber, 244 E. Grandview, will leave soon for Denver, Colo., where they plan to make their future home.

VFW and Ladies to Host 6th District Officers March 27

Harry L. Embree Post of Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Ladies' Auxiliary will be hosts to the sixth district officers and members at their quarterly meeting Sunday, March 27, at 1 o'clock.

The women will meet in the Masonic Hall and will join the Post at the new VFW Hall for a buffet supper to be served by the Auxiliary, following the business session.

This is the first district meeting to be held in Sierra Madre and a large attendance is anticipated.

Several members of the Post and Auxiliary visited the patients at Long Beach Veterans' Hospital on March 6 and March 20. On the 20th they were present for the bingo party given by members of the sixth district. Coupon books were given as prizes and homemade cake and coffee were served following the game.

Sharon Billie Lincke Engagement Announced

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Sharon Billie Lincke, daughter of Mrs. William Otto Lincke, 735 Canyon Crest, and the late Mr. Lincke, to Robert Dawson Burdick II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dawson Burdick of Pasadena.

The happy news was revealed at a dinner party for members of the immediate family in the bride-elect's mother's home.

Miss Lincke is a graduate of Pasadena City College. Mr. Burdick is a graduate of Pasadena City College and attended Stanford University for two years. He is currently enrolled at Occidental College where he is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

The young couple plan an August wedding.

There are 1,160,000 Cub Scouts in 32,000 Cub Packs throughout the United States.

Mrs. Blair Owen Honored at Recent Farewell Parties

Mrs. Blair Owen, a native of North Ireland, who has been visiting her son, Col. William J. Owen, 20 W. Mira Monte, and family for the past five months, was the guest of honor at a buffet supper party, for fifteen guests, in the Altadena home of the Fred Pattersons the evening of St. Patrick's Day.

Voluntary emphasis was placed on the singing of Irish songs by individuals, the group and celebrated singers on recordings until the wee small hours, "not unsupported by delectable victuals and potables of innocent but impressive character," according to one guest.

Among those attending were Colonel and Mrs. Owen, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sweet and Edward Voorhees, all of Sierra Madre. Pasadena was represented by Mrs. "Eric" Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Traut.

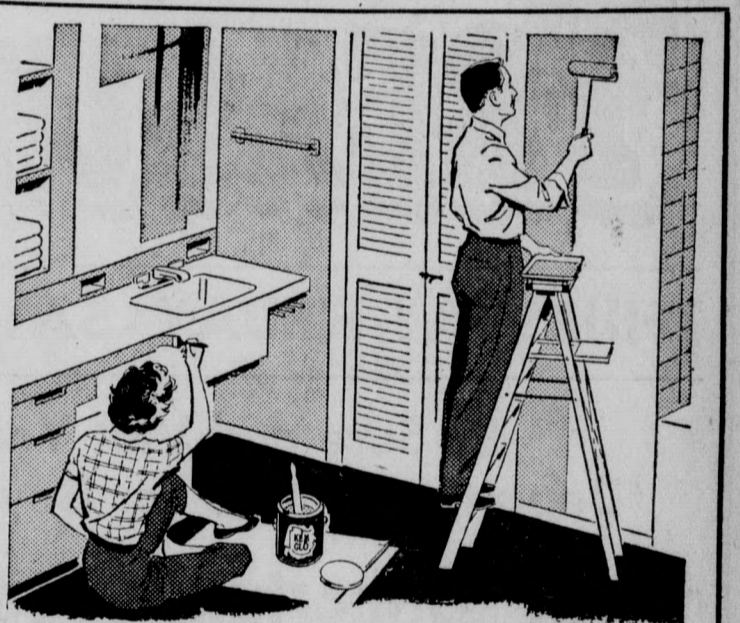

Last evening the William J. Owens' gave another farewell party for the visitor who is enplaning tomorrow for a two-day stopover in New York with friends before flying on to her present home in Newlands, Glasgow, Scotland.

Jessie Dunning Plans Easter Tea

Jessie Dunning will resume her annual Easter Tea tomorrow afternoon and evening in her gift shop. This is the first party since the war interrupted the traditional affair and everyone is invited to drop in for a cup of tea. The kettle will be "singing" from 1:30 until 8:30 p.m.

An added pleasure for those attending will be the viewing of a few of the latest paintings done by Mrs. Catherine Tuttle.

Mrs. Dunning will be assisted by her personnel and friends.

To Repeat Children's Opera In Pasadena Civic Auditorium

Because 1200 children were unable to get into the capacity-filled Pasadena Civic Auditorium March 13 to hear the world premiere of Mary Elizabeth Caldwell's opera for young people, "Pepito's Golden Flower," the Junior League, Pasadena Symphony Assn. and Board of Directors will offer another free performance at the auditorium Sunday, March 27, at 3 p.m. Doors open at 2:30 and tickets are not required.

A Pasadena "angel" supplied half the money for the repeat and the Junior League the other half. The performance is for children from the third through the eighth grades.

Lauris Jones, who scored the opera, conducts the orchestra of 30 players and the chorus. The stage direction is by Glynn Ross. The cast includes Kathleen de Spain, Roxy Sarkisian, Francis Barnes, Hamilton Williams, Frank Kpess, Evelyn LeMone, Tedd Weisch and the Bahnmtewa Twins.

Hiestand Announces Maritime Tests

Representative Edgar W. Hiestand (21st District, California) announced today that annual competitive examinations for appointment to the United States Merchant Marine Academy, Kings Point, Long Island, New York, will be held in Civil Service Centers throughout the United States and Territories, Monday, April 11, 1955. Approximately 330 candidates will be selected from the examination by the Maritime Administration, to report to the Academy in August, 1955.

LIVE IT UP

Vacationers often spend a few weeks on resort sands and the rest of the year on the rocks.

Sierra Madre Boy Scouts to Participate in Gigantic Circus

The Boy Scout Circus is coming to the Rose Bowl! Under the auspices of the San Gabriel Valley Council Boy Scouts of America, a spectacular outdoor Cavalcade will be staged by 16,000 Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorers in the Rose Bowl May 21 at 8 p.m. "Building for a Better Tomorrow" is the theme of the Circus.

Predicted to be the most lavish of its sort ever attempted in the San Gabriel Valley, the program will include 12 dramatic acts demonstrating Scout skills, preparedness and love of country. All Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts and Explorers of the Sierra Madre area will be participants in the Circus and are already hard at work rehearsing their various parts.

Although this is the first annual show staged by the San Gabriel Valley Council, the idea is not new to Scouting. All the larger local Councils of the Boy Scouts of America stage spectacularly successful annual shows as a program event to give Cubs, Scouts and Explorers the opportunity to demonstrate Scouting skills they have learned in their Pack, Troop and Post activity programs. Some larger Councils have been doing this for over 30 years and have made the event a tradition.

Robert W. Gerhart is Circus Committee chairman. Robert P. Sutton of Columbia Broadcasting System is Production chairman and Robert Hiestand of KTTV is director of the Cavalcade.

The Circus is under the auspices of San Gabriel Council, Boy Scouts of America, which includes La Canada, Linda Vista, Pasadena, Altadena, Sierra Madre, San Marino, Alhambra, San Gabriel, South San Gabriel, Monterey Park, Puente, Walnut, Arcadia, Duarte, Monrovia, Temple City, Rosemead, El Monte, Azusa, Glendora, Covina, West Covina, Charter Oak, Baldwin Park and Bassett. Tickets are $1 for adults with all under 18 admitted free when accompanied by a ticket holder. Ticket sales by Scouts will start April 15.

Need More Than Fox Hole Religion, Says Rev. G. Lindsay

"While there may have been 'no atheists in fox holes,' such a crisis religion is hardly adequate basis for a lifelong faith," the Rev. George Lindsay said at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church last Sunday.

"We would not think much of a friend who came to us only when he needed our help desperately, and never approached us the rest of the time," the minister observed. "We need a faith, not just for the crises of life, but for the long run; a faith which will change life from a treadmill to a pilgrimage."

Mr. Lindsay then went on to recount the ways in which we can come to a belief in God, through the evidence in the natural world and in the lives of men and women who have walked with God.

"Such evidence is not enough, however," he stated. "We can never 'prove' the existence of God. We can only come to a full sense of His reality in our own hearts and lives."

"It is not very important whether or not you believe in God. Probably the devil believes in God. What is important is that you love Him. Out of that love come new peace, purpose and power for our lives. Yet we must love Him, not for what He can do for us, but for the sheer joy of fellowship with Him, for which we have been created."

Mr. Lindsay's sermon next Sunday will be "Love Thyself."

DR. ROBERT SCHAPER SPEAKER AT ANNUAL BIBLE INSTITUTE

Dr. Robert Schaper, pastor of Bethany Church spoke March 25 at the Annual Banquet of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, held this year at the Immanuel Presbyterian Church on Wilshire Blvd., with more than 400 guests making reservations. The theme of the banquet was "Christ, Our Pilot."

The Bible Institute of Los Angeles has long been an outstanding Christian educational center and has trained thousands of young people for various types of Christian service. Dr. Samuel H. Sutherland is president. Marileen Scoville, Lois Dirks, Ernie Richter and J. W. Moore, all of Bethany Church, are among those currently enrolled.

News of the Churches

Bethany Young People Plan Mountain Retreat

The combined youth groups of Bethany Church from the Junior High through the Campus Departments are leaving Friday evening for their Annual Conference at Forest Home in the San Bernardino Mountains. The sessions will extend through Sunday noon at which time the entire group will return to Sierra Madre.

This annual event will be conducted this year in conjunction with the San Gabriel Union Church. A total of around 250 young people will be in attendance with approximately 100 from Bethany Church. Rev. Paul Alleman, youth director at Bethany, will be the Dean of the conference along with Rev. W. J. Hemphill of San Gabriel.

Featured as the Conference speaker will be Rev. Arthur Mow, former missionary to Borneo. In addition to the regular preaching sessions there will be discussion groups and training classes. Saturday afternoon will be entirely devoted to recreation.

The Sunday night service at Bethany Church will include a number of testimonies and reports of the Conference session.

BETHANY VOYAGERS DINNER MEET HELD

The Voyagers Club of Bethany Church, an organization for young adults and young married couples to a combined age of 65, held its monthly fellowship meeting at Bethany Church last Tuesday night. There was a record attendance of 53 for the steak dinner and the interesting program that followed. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Limbaugh are Skippers of the club, and the Tuesday night session was under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Alleman. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Knight. The club also meets weekly as a Sunday school class at Bethany Church with Dr. Robert Schaper as teacher.

The Voyagers Club is the sister group to the Mariners, an organization for married couples beyond the combined age of 65. The Mariners also conduct a monthly fellowship meeting and a Sunday school class on Sunday morning led by Rev. Raeburn Woodson. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Brownings are the Skippers of the Mariners Club, which, at its last meeting, had over 80 in attendance.

Christian Science Program on KNXT Sunday, March 27

The Christian Science Church will provide the program on the "Light of Faith" series over Station KNXT Sunday, March 27, at 9:30 in the morning. Bonnie Murray, well-known singer, will be soloist, and Wesley B. Tourtelotte will be organist. The theme of the program is "Salvation."

Sermon Stresses Permanence of Good

The permanence and perfection of true being will keynote the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Reality" at the Sunday services of all Churches of Christ, Scientist.

"Blessed art thou, O Lord: teach me thy statutes... Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law," declares the Golden Text from Psalms (119:12, 18).

According to John's Gospel (9:2, 3, 6, 7) Jesus' disciples questioned regarding the man blind from birth, "Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?" Jesus answered, "Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents; but that the works of God should be made manifest in him... and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with clay. And said unto him, Go wash in the pool of Siloam,..." He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing."

Mary Baker Eddy declares in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "The physical Healing of Christian Science results now, as in Jesus' time, from the operation of divine Principle, before which sin and disease lose their reality in human consciousness and disappear as naturally and as necessarily as darkness gives place to light and sin to reformation. Now, as then, these mighty works are not supernatural, but supremely natural" (p. xi).

'ETHICS OF A CHOSEN PEOPLE' TO BE RABBI STECKEL'S TOPIC

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel's sermon topic for next Friday night's service will be "Ethics of a Chosen People." The service will start at 8:30 p.m. in the Foothill Jewish Community Center, 212 N. Lima.

Leaches to Leave For Mexico City

The Rev. Harry Leach and Mrs. Leach will fly to Mexico City March 31, where they will spend several months visiting friends and relatives.

They will occupy the home of Mrs. Harold Johnson while she is in Europe.

Mr. Leach is interim minister for the Congregational churches of this area and has been interim minister at the Sierra Madre Congregational Church for the past eight months.

They plan to return to the United States in July.

W.C.T.U Meeting Slated for March 31

Mrs. Eva C. Freeman, 169 Lowell, will be hostess to the Harter Woman's Christian Temperance Union Thursday, 2 p.m. March 31. The business meeting will be followed by a study of the book, "Fruit of the Vine" by Turnbull, and a report on comparative expenditures in 1953 on gambling, crime, meat, savings and loan, alcoholic beverages and other items.

"Let's Be Free" Sermon Subject At Church of Our Redeemer Sunday

"Let's Be Free" is the sermon title for the fifth Sunday in Lent at the Methodist Church. Rev. Raynor Smith will point out the implications of freedom and the technique for achieving it. He will preach at both the 9:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. worship services. Special music will be presented by the choir. Nursery care is available for small children.

The Methodist Men are currently engaged in a clean-up project for the church grounds. Last week the appearance of the front acre of the property was greatly improved by discing. This Saturday the men plan to trim vines on the walls and clean up the interior of the premises. It is hoped that by Easter a major portion of the spring cleaning will have been accomplished.

A recent acquisition by the Methodist Church is some play equipment. This consists of several slides and swings and a tether ball pole from the deactivated Plaza Children's Home. The Methodist Men's group helped secure this equipment.

Success or failure is simply an expression of your state of mind.

Congregational Young People to Go to Pilgrim Pines

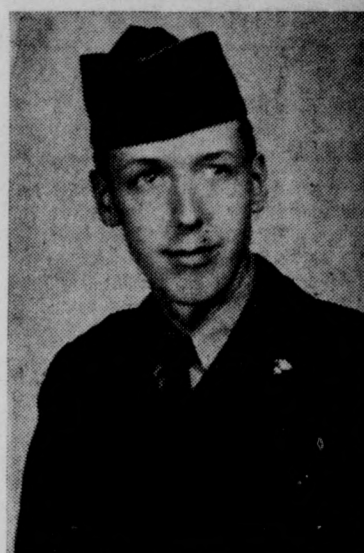

Thirty-nine young people from the Junior High Sunday School and the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Congregational Church will spend March 25, 26 and 27 at Pilgrim Pines Camp.

While there they will plan their projects for the coming year and they will also have an opportunity to become acquainted with their new minister, Rev. George Lindsay, who with nine other adults will accompany them to the camp.

Four money raising projects have been put on by the Congregational young people during the past few weeks in anticipation of the coming retreat including a magic show, car wash day, candy and cake sales.

The Pilgrim Pines Camp, in the mountains above Yucaipa, has been undergoing a five-year development program and now all of the sturdy and modern cabins for the girls' side of the camp have been completed. It is reported.

Field Camp Fire Girls Fete First Graders; Begin Peanut Sale

Eugene Field Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, celebrating the 45th anniversary of their organization honored first grade girls and their mothers at a party in the cafeteria last week.

And this week you can expect a knock on your door and a smiling Blue Bird or Camp Fire Girl to ask you to buy a can of peanuts, as their annual national peanut sale goes into full swing. The sale ends April 4.

But back to the party. A huge cake decorated with the Camp Fire emblem was cut to serve the 100 guests. Miss Betsy Kennedy, Camp Fire director for the Field district, told of activities of the Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls and showed slides to illustrate her talk. Second grade Blue Birds, under leadership of Mrs. Donald Lingren, gave a demonstration of the Hokey Pokey, and third grade girls, under leadership of Mrs. Peter H. Hurlig and Mrs. Norman Shanks, served as hostesses in passing refreshments.

Fifth grade Camp Fire Girls, under leadership of Mrs. Sheldon Milliken and Mrs. Jack Willis, sang a group of Camp Fire council fire songs around a make-believe fire.

Spring Nursery School Card Parties Arranged

The Hastings Ranch Nursery School series of spring bridge parties opened yesterday with an affair given by Mrs. Lewis J. Ross, 3880 Cartwright.

Mrs. Grant Brown, 1265 Valley View, has scheduled a card party for March 30 at her home and Mrs. Joseph Phillipson, 1485 Old House Road, will be hostess April 6. Serving with Mrs. Phillipson will be Mrs. Robert Griswold and Mrs. Norman White.

Dates for other parties will be announced later by Mrs. Virgil Anglin, card parties chairman. The annual Cotton Ball is scheduled for June 4 at the Altadena Town and Country Club.

Courtland Paul Talks For Las Jardineras

Courtland Paul, popular Pasadena landscape architect, was guest speaker at the March meeting of Las Jardineras Tuesday afternoon, illustrating his discussion with colored slides of landscape effects and patios.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Langsett, 3750 Mayfair, with Mrs. William Lansill and Mrs. Ray Lindman serving as co-hostesses. Mrs. Richard Beattie gave a short report on "April Gardening."

Airplane Party for Eighth Birthday

Jay Binns, son of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Binns, 1451 Daveric, celebrated his ninth birthday at an afternoon party.

Airplanes were used for the table and cake decorations.

Those arriving to enjoy the day's festivities were Dennis Doherty, Chick Harrison, Paul Potter, John Du Bois, Ralph Thorgrimson, Stephen Roy, Kent McKee and Stephen Wilson.

Birthdays Marked By Rudnick Children

Two of the Sam Rudnick children recently celebrated birthdays.

Joel marked his ninth birthday by taking a group to the Children's Opera in Pasadena and then to Los Angeles for dinner at Clifton's.

Those included in the fun were David Stewart, Tommy Elfers, Larry and Donnie King, the guest of honor's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kramish of Los Angeles, his brother, Tim, and sister, Lia.

Lia's fourth birthday was celebrated at an afternoon party St. Patrick's Day in the Rudnick home, 1270 Coronet.

Among those taking part in the celebration and the "wearing of the Green" were Darle Caldecott, Elizabeth Swanson, Holly and Susan Michaels, Johnny Reinhart, Rion Pollack, Ricky Shafer and Eric Stoltzberg.

Hastings Dance Club Uses 'Academy Award' Theme at March Party

Members of the Hastings Ranch Dance Club became Hollywood personalities for the evening when they enjoyed their second monthly dancing party March 12 at the Michilinda Women's Club. Hosts employed an Academy Award theme in decorations and program.

Frank and Marie, a dance team, were a highlight of the program, demonstrating the tango and the mambo. Another high point came when "awards" were made to several couples of the club for outstanding performances on the dance floor. The "awards" turned out to be merely large foil-covered cookies baked in the shape of a dancing couple.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. William Caldecott, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Lubisch and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ayres. Mr. Ayres served as master of ceremonies. The refreshment table, arranged by Mrs. Caldecott, was covered with a pale green cloth and centered with an elongated arrangement of varied spring flowers.

The evening of April 9 is set for the next affair, with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coates, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Masser and Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Boden serving as hosts.

Farewell Party for Harold C. Nelsons

Friends and neighbors gathered at the John R. Post home, 1395 Rexford, for a potluck farewell party honoring Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Nelson, 1370 Rexford, who have sold their home and are moving to the San Fernando Valley.

Among those enjoying the evening's festivities and having a share in the giving of a bedroom radio to the Nelsons were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald A. Friederici, Mr. and Mrs. Timothy L. Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Burkett, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Marquis W. Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Freinkel, Mr. and Mrs. R. Norman Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Hagele.

Cal Alumni Club Meets At 8 Tomorrow Night

San Gabriel Valley California Alumni Club will meet at 8 o'clock tomorrow night at La Casita del Arroyo, 177 S. Arroyo Blvd., Pasadena. A number of Hastings Ranchers will be in attendance.

Phil McConnell of the class of 1922 will discuss "Saudi Arabia—Then and Now," illustrating his talk with colored slides. This group also will hear details of the Cal Alumni Institute to be held in May at the Huntington-Sheraton.

Carol Anderson Feted On Eighth Birthday

Carol Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin S. Anderson, 3855 Landfair, celebrated her eighth birthday the other day with a party at her home. A spring theme was used, with a little watering pot of mixed flowers centering the green-covered party table.

Helping Carol celebrate were Michelle Feye, Cheryl Lingren, Penny Meserve, Susan Myers, Joan Nordquist, Linda Hedman, Sandra Anderson and Carol Selin.

Ranch Women Attend Annual Fashion Show

A number of Ranch women attended the annual dessert fashion show and card party sponsored by the Shakespeare Club Juniors last week in the Pasadena clubhouse.

Among those enjoying the fashions were Mrs. Charles B. Le Bon, III, one of the committee members, Mrs. James W. Simpson, Mrs. William K. Shiner, Mrs. Robert V. Gibson, Mrs. J. ## Automatically your best buy!

Ford's five power assists combine to give you more added convenience and extra driving ease than you can get in any other car in Ford's field!

It's great fun to step into a Ford's rich, colorful Luxury Lounge interior . . . to touch your toe to the gas pedal and feel the masterful might of Trigger-Torque power responding instantly to your every wish. It's fun too, to bask in the admiration aroused everywhere by Ford's Thunderbird-inspired styling.

But, for the ultimate in driving fun and ease, you should try a Ford with Ford's optional power assists: new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic, power steering, brakes, windows and seat. Ford brings you the power assists that combine to do the most for you automatically . . . so you get the most out of your daily driving!

Automatic Driving at its Best

Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive has a new, automatic low gear which lets you start in low, shift to intermediate and then into high—all automatically—all while the selector lever is in drive position. It's the only "automatic" in its field that combines the smoothness of a fluid torque converter with the versatility of three automatic forward gears.

Power to Steer For You

Master-Guide Power Steering does up to 75% of the steering work for you on turns . . . yet you retain the natural feel of the wheel on straightaways. It's a great help when parking—makes all driving easier and more relaxing.

Power to Apply Your Brakes

Ford's Swift Sure Power Brakes do up to one-third of the stopping work for you. And there's built-in safety. With power off, you stop your car as easily as though your Ford were equipped with the standard braking system.

Power to Adjust Your Seat

Ford's 4-Way Power Seat is the only power seat in Ford's field that adjusts "up and down" as well as "forward and back" for most comfortable driving positions. A touch of the conveniently located single seat control does it!

Power to Lift Your Windows

With Ford Power-Lift Windows you don't need to stop in order to open or close all side windows. Driver can operate all four windows from the master control. And each passenger has a separate control switch for his own window.

And there's Trigger-Torque power to give you more "Go"

Chevrolet to Unveil New Truck Models Friday, Mar. 25

Chevrolet introduces a fresh approach to the design of commercial cars and trucks in a completely new line of 1955 models that will be unveiled at Bates Chevrolet, 850 S. Baldwin, West Arcadia, Friday, March 25.

The vehicles climax a two-year development program. To produce highway carriers that would answer more closely the specialized demands of modern traffic conditions, company engineers talked to hundreds of farmers, merchants, manufacturers, cross-country transporters and most important man in the trucking industry — the driver.

Recommendations from these sources were assembled and analyzed in Detroit. They played a dominant part in the eventual design. As a result, Chevrolet states its 1955 "Task Force Trucks" have advanced more impressively in efficiency and performance than any previous models.

Following are a few of the high spots of the 1955 models: More compact design, reduced wheel base which is in greater harmony with restricted parking and loading facilities.

Wider panel bodies and consequent gain in load space. An entirely new and different pickup called the "Cameo Carrier" for class merchandise. A reduction in maximum cab heights up to seven inches on brand new "Low Cab Forward" models, making entering and leaving a cab easier. Many other interesting features can be viewed by visiting the Bates Motors where a wide selection of 1955 trucks will be on display beginning Friday, March 25.

FIRE FLAMES

By JAMES HEASLEY

Springtime in the United States has always been known as "Clean-up" time. The time has arrived and we should begin. A clean home is a fire safe home. Firemen know that most fires would never happen if homes and yards were kept clean and rubbish-free. There are many suggestions on how to keep the home "fire safe." This column has repeated them many times.

To keep a home "rubbish-free" answers a lot. Clear the inside of old linens, cast-off clothing, mattresses and old furniture, curtains, draperies, magazines, papers, etc. Keep the outside clear of dead grass, weeds, trash and dried brush or trimmings. Store dust mops and oily rags in safe metal containers. Use only 15-ampere fuses or the equivalent, and replace worn and damaged cords. Have plenty of well-designed ash trays handy for those who smoke.

Many fires have started at the roof. Old wood shingles are susceptible to fire and should be kept in fine repair. Fire resistant asphalt shingles are to be highly recommended. Metal slate, tile or asbestos are also fine covering for the house. Have the heating system repaired and don't forget the chimney. It wouldn't hurt a thing to have it cleaned. The chimney ought to have special attention before starting the first fire in cool weather.

Cleaning fluids are dangerous. Use only safe fluids, if any. Inflammable liquids can mean the end of everything. For those who have no choice but to burn their rubbish, it is advisable to first get a fire permit from the fire department by calling in or appearing for it. Such co-operation has proved a valuable safeguard for the town on many occasions.

First, pick a safe spot to do the burning. Away from house and garage with a cleared spot around the location. Be just as careful with trash burners. Some of the trash burners sold are not to be recommended. Some of us can just about repeat the above suggestions by heart. They're still good.

A few of the firemen had a lot of fun last meeting night—but they paid for it. During an election for admittance to membership, the candidates and auxiliary are requested to step out of the room. As is customary, this particular group thinks of things to do to disturb the very serious-minded men at work in the office. It is not unusual to hear the truck sirens screeching—but one brave laddie climbed to the top of the tower and got his fingers caught in the valve of the alarm horn. That's what so many people heard and are asking about. It cost the boy two dollars.

Each of the truck siren sounders were fined and paid one dollar. As the Cuss Can grows, so much nearer comes a "Party," so what?

3,660,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America now belong to 95,000 Units.

Easter Seal Fund for Crippled Children

A goal of $400,000 for the seven-day old Easter seal campaign of the Crippled Children's Society of Los Angeles County was announced this week by Paul Dietrich, president of the society.

"This is the minimum budget we need to continue expanding our services to those in need," said Dietrich, explaining the increase over last year's $350,000 goal.

"In the past year we have not only serviced more handicapped persons than ever before in our history, but we have opened a new center in Pomona and plan shortly to open a ranch facility for recreation in the San Fernando Valley," Dietrich said.

Campfire Log

Sierra Madre Camp Fire groups and their leaders have just completed a very active week of events which took place in commemoration of the Camp Fire Girls 45th birthday.

Birthday week began with Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups attending church together for the purpose of rededicating themselves to the spirit of Camp Fire. The new Methodist Church of Our Redeemer in Sierra Madre very generously shared its space with the attending groups and everyone was made to feel most welcome. Rev. Raynor Smith gave a very interesting and humorous sermon.

The new third grade Blue Bird group under the leadership of Mrs. William Rice represented Camp Fire at St. Rita's. The Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups had the opportunity on Wednesday of sharing their patriotic program, "Let Freedom Ring in Song and Dance," with the City Schools, when they performed for the second through sixth grades in the school auditorium, Mrs. Helmut Vorster, president of the Camp Fire Leaders' Association, welcomed the assembly, then turned the program over to Mrs. Harold Drury, narrator. The program spotlighted great historical American events with an appropriate song or dance of that time. Miss Smith of the City School led the assembly in the singing of "America" and the "Star Spangled Banner."

Eight Blue Bird and Camp Fire groups participated in the Wednesday event. On Thursday, all 11 Camp Fire and Blue Bird groups were entertained with the film, "Heidi," in the school auditorium. After the film, the groups passed to the cafeteria where the large 45th birthday cake was cut by Blue Bird, Maribelle Lammers, and Camp Fire Girl, Jean Poynts. Mrs. Harold Jano, a representative, spoke briefly to the girls and leaders.

Peanut Sale began on Friday and climaxed a busy birthday week.

A-O-WA-KI-YA, a group of sixth grade Camp Fire Girls, has purchased and is having planted at the Sierra Mesa School a flowering peach tree as a memorial to William B. Cook who just recently passed away. The girls decided upon the flowering peach because of the fact that whenever it blooms at this time each year, it will remind them of one of their great friends whom they are going to miss greatly. The girls who have helped with this memorial are Judy Crook, Jeanine Berkshire, Connie Cannon, Susan Drury, Bonnie Howard, Mary Jo Holmes, Susan Garson, Susan Ludwick, Sandra Embree, Linda Waite and Jean Poynts. Mrs. William White and Mrs. Harold Drury are leaders of the group which is sponsored by the PTA. The planting of this peach tree by the girls also coincides with Arbor Day which was celebrated during the week that the tree was planted.

All of the girls of the A-O-WA-KI-YA group visited Descanso Gardens on Saturday, March 12, on a trip planned by their leaders. The girls took their lunch and spent the day enjoying the 165 acres of azaleas and camellias. Mothers accompanying were Mrs. Harry Howard and Mrs. Lee Embree.

A new group of third grade Blue Birds was recently organized at St. Rita's with a meeting at the home of Mrs. Wil-

SEE THEM TOMORROW! New Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks!

It's the largest and finest fleet of trucks ever built by the nation's No. 1 truck builder. Whatever your task or trade, there's a new Chevrolet truck to make or save you money on the job. Come and look 'em over!

Now Chevrolet introduces "Work Styling"—an exclusive development in truck design. Plus new engines—new capacities—new Overdrive and Power Steering—new features and advantages throughout!

Here's what happens when America's leading truck builder pulls out all the stops! Here are trucks that are new from the drawing board out! And they have a whole truckload of new advantages for you!

New styling in trucks

Fleet, functional styling that fits your job! For the first time in any truck line, two distinctly different styling treatments are offered—one in light- and medium-duty models, another in heavy-duty. Your handsome new Chevrolet truck will be a profitable advertisement-on-wheels for you and your business!

A new outlook for the driver

Truck driving was never like this! The completely new Flite-Ride cab is everything a driver could wish for, from its big Sweep-Sight windshield to its concealed Safety Step that keeps clear of mud or snow! The new seat is softer and more comfortable... new instrument panel and controls are the last word in convenience!

Six new "high-voltage" engines

With a new 12-volt electrical system for quicker, surer cold-weather starting and increased generator capacity! Plus more efficient cooling and lubrication systems, an improved fuel system, and completely redesigned engine mountings. They're the smoothest, quietest, most powerful Chevrolet truck engines ever built!

And much more that's new

Like the smoother, load-steady ride... new High-Level ventilation... tubeless tires, standard on 1/2-ton models... new, more durable frames of standard width... Power Brakes* for all models, standard in 2-ton models... new 18,000 lb. max. G.V.W. in 2-ton models. And there's a new choice of transmissions, including new Overdrive* and Hydra-Matic*. New Power Steering* for all models. Come in and see the newest things in trucks!

*Optional at extra cost. Overdrive available on 1/2-ton models, Hydra-Matic on 1/2-, 3/4- and 1-ton models.

New Cameo Carrier

Here's a truck like no other truck you've ever seen! It's the "flagship" of the handsome new Chevrolet truck fleet... the first truly beautiful truck ever built. Come in and see this dramatic departure in truck design!

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand REPORTS THE WASHINGTON NEWS

DIXON-YATES

Because the Dixon-Yates Contract is being used by some people as a symbol of evil, and because by others it has become the bone of contention in the fight of the Socialists to destroy private enterprise, a few remarks are probably in order. As my good friend, Congressman James Utt of Santa Ana, said, "You make the casual remark that inflation has been stopped and the cost of living is down." The reply is, "Yes, but how about Dixon-Yates?" You continue, "The national income is going up, and taxes are coming down." Again, the reply is, "Yes, but how about Dixon-Yates?" That reply has become so universal that if you were talking to Chou-En-Lai and said, "It's a violation of the Korean armistice for you to hold our prisoners," he would say, "Yes, but how about Dixon-Yates?"

Very briefly, the Atomic Energy Commission needs large quantities of more electric power. Previously, when they needed more power, contracts were entered into with private companies to add to the power already provided by the Tennessee Valley Authority. During the Truman administration, no hue and cry was raised. This new contract between the AEC and the Mississippi Generating Company, headed by Mr. Dixon and Mr. Yates, presidents of two other power companies, is for the Government a more favorable contract than either of the previous ones. The location of the new big plant, however, was below Memphis on the Arkansas side of the Mississippi, and to transport that power to the needed spot near Paducah, Kentucky, a contract was entered into with the TVA to use its existing lines. The private power companies were to raise their own funds, pay interest on them, and pay taxes on their operations.

All this has become the subject of a violent, purely political attack on President Eisenhower and the AEC by certain Senators from the Tennessee Valley, and other people of well-known socialistic leanings. It became a filibuster lasting for two weeks. The issue, in my judgment, was crystal clear. It was Socialism vs. Americanism, public tax-free power vs. private taxpaying power. The Socialists wanted the TVA, public power, to erect the plant with over one hundred million dollars worth of taxpayers' money, and operate it interest free, and tax free.

Blimps Collect Valuable Data on Smog Research

"WEEKEND WARRIORS" PATROL SKIES

Dr. L. B. Hitchcock, president of the Air Pollution Foundation, recently said that U. S. Naval blimps stationed here collected valuable answers in smog research while patrolling skies of the Los Angeles Basin last Summer. The lighter-than-air squadrons cooperated with the Foundation as part of its 1954 Aerometric survey—a continuous monitoring of all contaminants in the Basin.

Dr. Hitchcock was principal speaker at the Third Annual Military Inspection and Review of the Naval Air Reserve at Santa Ana. He paid special tribute to the "weekend warriors" under the command of Rear Admiral Daniel V. Gallery, Chief of Naval Air Reserve Training, who was an honored guest at the review.

"The never failing cooperation of Admiral Gallery's able officers and men," said Hitchcock, "made possible the first systematic exploration of the extent of air pollution not only up to the base of the inversion layer, but through it and sometimes above it."

Hitchcock likened the well-known inversion lid over the L. A. Basin to a sharply defined "deck," above which the air is clear—below which there is a mass of dirty-grey atmosphere over the city.

"There was speculation," he said, "that certain invisible and important pollutants might be escaping from this inversion layer by diffusion. Last summer's blimp survey gave us an answer. The pollutants in question were fairly constant from the ground surface up to the base of the inversion layer,

The exponents of the American free enterprise system wanted private funds to be raised and interest and taxes paid to the Federal Government, saving the taxpayers $100,000,000. Perhaps you didn't know it, but the TVA has cost you taxpayers over two thousand million dollars since its inception. It has greatly benefited that area of the country at the expense of the rest of the country. It was designed for the manufacture of purely hydro-electric power, but so many millions of added investments have gone into additional steam power plants, that now over 60% of TVA power is generated by steam plants, built with taxpayers' money generally interest-free and tax-free. The Democratic 82nd Congress and the Republican 83rd Congress refused additional funds for additional power plants to the TVA, and that's what started the fight.

The President, we are happy to say, is standing fast for the Dixon-Yates contract, a perfectly sound, more favorable contract than the Government has been able previously to negotiate, and has refused to have that plant erected at the taxpayers' expense, when it could be done with private funds. This may prove to be the first of a number of pro-socialist and anti-socialist battles for this Congress. Many of us are hopeful that we can gather enough votes to cause the Congress to stand fast.

INFLATION

"Inflation, rampant for several past years, has been checked. The cost of living has not increased now for over two years, as compared with the fact that it almost doubled in the 15 previous years. This has been worth billions of dollars to millions of Americans."

Secretary of the Treasury George M. Humphrey, Feb. 28, 1955.

FEDERAL AID

Our cities and counties need 400,000 new classrooms. This will cost somewhere in the range of 10 to 12 billion dollars, half of which amount was the best the cities and counties could provide. The cities and counties turn to the Federal Government which they say will simply have to supply the rest.

"Where do you think the Federal Government gets that kind of money," asked the Treasury.

"Why, from the cities and counties, of course," replied the Answer Man.

Mothers-Fathers-School Join Hands To Give Kindergarten Play Equipment

Because of the initiative and determination of four mothers of children in Mrs. D. McKee's kindergarten classes in the Sierra Madre City School at Highland and Auburn, that room now has a number of play features which a few short weeks ago it lacked.

The mothers who started the ball rolling for a work day were Mrs. Kenneth Carlson, Mrs. Loran Smith, Mrs. Mit Kunihiro and Mrs. Lichter. First, this quartet of workers outlined the needs for playhouse equipment and they then set about to gather material including lumber, paint, nails, etc., for the task. The next step came when they put fathers of the kindergartners on a schedule to build the much needed items.

As a result of this well planned activity, the room now has a sink, stove, dressing table and a mounted steering wheel with bunk beds for dolls still to come. Several parents who were unable to contribute either time or material sent money which was spent for the purchase of a beautiful large doll.

Soon the mothers are to spend a day making clothes for the doll and kindergartners in Mrs. McKee's groups will then have a well balanced amount of playhouse equipment.

Fathers who spent part of a recent weekend working at the school were: Kenneth Carlson, Loran Smith, Mit Kunihiro, Charles Roth, George Osborn, Charles Abbe, James McCoy and Marcus Schaefer.

Peter O. Rogers, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter V. Rogers, is now stationed at Parks Air Force Base near Oakland.

World's Largest Boys' Republic Rummage Sale Starts Mar. 31

Once again the doors of Pasadena's Civic Auditorium will open to the "world's largest" rummage sale sponsored by the Pasadena Auxiliary of Boys Republic, to be held Thursday, March 31, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Collection of articles for this 80th semi-annual event is well underway, as announced by Mrs. Donald R. Wright, president of the auxiliary.

Movie stars and celebrities from many fields are among the donors who contribute articles of every conceivable nature to this mammoth sale, which includes new and used items, which are priced and sorted into 24 different departments such as boys' and girls' clothing, toys, dresses, men's suits, furniture, millinery, hardware, books, draperies and household goods.

The proceeds from these twice-yearly sales are used entirely for the benefit of the Boys Republic School in China, which is a non-sectarian, self-governing farm school where boys of high school age are given the opportunity of becoming good citizens through a wide program of education, work and recreation in an atmosphere of understanding.

This spring sale marks more than 44 years that the Pasadena Auxiliary of Boys Republic has devoted its efforts toward raising funds for the Boys Republic. As a result of these rummage sales, the school has been provided with a swimming pool, a gymnasium,
